Invited Participation in Significant Events

NASA Sea Level Change Team Meeting		2019
Convened researchers and practitioners to identify gaps in scientific knowledge and public understanding that are presently limiting the ability to plan for future sea level rise.
Collaborating Towards Coastal Resilience in the Southeast Workshop		2019
Served as facilitator and participant in workshop for Sea Grant and Department of Defense members of Southeast Regional Partnership for Planning and Sustainability (SERPPAS).
Socio-Environmental Systems Indicators for Climate Change Adaptation & Resilience in the U.S.		2019
NSF-sponsored workshop to advance development of combined biophysical and social indicators of climate change to support adaptation, mitigation and future research decisions in the United States.
Southeast Sustainability Directors Network Community Engagement Workshop		2019
Two cohorts of City and County staff and local partners from the Southeast shared and developed strategies for conducting public outreach and engaging marginalized community members.
Envisioning Risk of Hurricane Storm Surge and Sea Level Rise: National Center for Atmospheric Research GIS Program BRIGHT E Workshop		2018
Workshop to develop data visualizations of storm surge forecasts and sea level rise projections in 2D, 3D and using StoryMaps.

UGA's Loop 10 Concert: For the Earth	2018
Collaborated with the UGA Student Composers Association to develop a mixed chamber ensemble titled KING TIDE (2018) for viola, bass clarinet, and percussion.
United States Air Force Auxiliary's Civil Air Patrol	2018
Flew with CAP pilots to capture 360-degree aerial video footage and photography of a king tide.
Georgia Climate Project launch with Provosts of Emory, UGA and Georgia Tech and Trustees of Ray C. Anderson Foundation	2018
Meeting to discuss climate risks facing the state of Georgia and how a coalition of universities throughout the state could aid in decision making and planning.
Southeast Sustainability Directors Network Energy Equity Workshop	2018
